

In 1969 the cooperation with Mannesmann started.

The cooperation was based on a splitting up of work, which was supposed to increase the productivity on both sides. Since then the statement: "Tubes to Mannesmann, sheet metal to Thyssen" had become a well-known slogan in the steel processing industry.

subtitle of photograph:

Rheinstahl' pavilion in 1955 on the 'Hanover Fair', hp thyssen-krupp